Welcome to the 1988 Doddington Village Sports Day. This very popular village event now includes a CARNIVAL in the morning and the increasingly successful STREET PARTY in the evening. We are lucky to have lots of helpers on the day and of course we are always pleased that so many village families join in the fun on all three events.

Our problem is that the events need about £750 to finance them each year and this amount of money takes a lot of hard work to raise. We desperately need more people to join our committee to help in the year round work of organising this special day. Without your help this could well be the last day of its kind in the village. I'm sure you don't want this event to die; so if you think you can spare some time and effort then let one of the current team know and we will co-opt you for the '89 event.

The committee who all need full praise for their hard work and support are:

ELAINE THORNTON - TREASURER & SECRETARY
JOHN BAYS - VICE CHAIRMAN
DAVE CURTIS
DOREEN COSTALL
GORDON SHACKCLOTH

Don't forget to buy a ticket or two for a special prize draw (1st Prize A Holiday for 2 in the MEDITERRANEAN) and most of all - HAVE A NICE DAY!

RICHARD WEDGBURY - CHAIRMAN.
